Alex. H. WashburnStar Suspends for Christmas; Another
Hike in Newsprint

Traditionally The Star suspends publication for Christmas, which is this Saturday; and we'll turn the crew loose early Friday, meaning a noon press-time instead of the usual 2:30 deadline, giving them a little extra time besides the actual holiday.

Best regards from all of us to all of you this Christmas Day 1971.

This is not good holiday news but it must be reported just the same.

Yesterday afternoon we got a telegram from the Dallas office of Perkins Goodwin Co., sales agent for Southland Paper Mills, Inc., our Lufkin (Texas) newsprint supplier, which read as follows:

"Southland Paper Mills, Inc., has today asked me to advise you that the price of their newsprint under our contract with you is to be increased by $5 a ton effective Feb. 1, 1972. They regret this action and hope you will fully understand that only continued and unavoidable increased costs in all areas of their operations make it necessary. Kind regards

J.W. PRICE
Vice-President, Perkins Goodwin Co., Inc."

The same message has gone all over the nation, of course. We started off 1971 with newsprint at $151 a ton delivered in Hope. On April 1 the Canadian and U.S. paper mills announced an increase for the Southern states of $7 per ton ($1 more in the Northern states), lifting the price to $158. Now we are closing 1971 with the certainty of another boost of $5, which will put the price of paper at $163.

The Wall Street Journal carried a feature article Dec. 22 headlined, "Wage-Price Controls Won't Work," and those are my sentiments, too.

Our government can't do anything about the price of newsprint, 90 per cent of American consumption depending on Canadian mills; and U.S. mills are tied to the Canadian price level because all mills everywhere have cross-agreements to supply each others' newspaper customers in the event of a mill fire or strike.

It's not good news for the holiday season. But it has to be told in all honesty. We will have had a $12-a-ton increase in paper cost within 10 months come Feb. 1—and that spells bad news for newspaper subscribers wherever they live.

We paid $158 a ton for the car delivered in November, and will get a car in January at the same price, after which the tariff will rise to $163.

Fires Claim
Lives of 8
Children

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A gas heater pilot light and a Christmas candle were thought to have ignited two fires that claimed the lives of eight children—five in a Los Angeles apartment and three in a wood frame house in Tewksbury, Mass.

The fire which trapped the five children of Joseph and Mary Lee Shepard in an upstairs room of their apartment broke out Thursday when the pilot light ignited fumes from a paint solvent Shepard was using, firemen said.

Setbacks Put Pressure on Cambodian Leaders

By ROBIN MANNOCK

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Military and political leaders are pressuring Marshal Lon Nol to surrender power gracefully in the face of a series of setbacks on the battlefield, but the semi-invalid premier has given no hint that he'll step down.

The alternative, highly placed sources said, could be a coup to depose the 58-year-old marshal from the post he has held since April 1969.

Lon Nol has never fully re-

Dock Strike
May Be Prevented

By LEIF ERICKSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A West Coast dock agreement is likely without a new walkout by 13,000 longshore union workers in 24 Pacific ports, government sources say.

Government and union sources who insisted they not be identified said there was evidence of genuine will on both sides to try for an agreement.

And in Washington, J. Curtis Counts, Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service director, announced Thursday that union and employer negotiators had agreed to extend the old longshore contract until Jan. 10.

This stops the possibility of a strike on Christmas Day, the expiration date of an 80-day Taft-Hartley cooling-off period injunction obtained by President Nixon.

The injunction invoked Oct. 6 ended a 100-day walkout which the United Bank of California estimated cost $1.5 billion in lost income in California.

The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union would be free to resume the strike after Jan. 10 since Nixon cannot seek a second Taft-Hartley injunction.

ILWU President Harry Bridges earlier had said his negotiating committee was considering joint action with the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association for a nationwide port shutdown in February.

'Blockbusting' to Be Probed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. Atty. W. H. Dillahunty said Thursday his office is preparing a suit against alleged "blockbusting" in Little Rock.

The attorney said it would be at least a week before the suit is filed. He also declined to say whom the defendants in the suit would be.

The FBI completed an investigation of complaints about alleged "blockbusting" by Little Rock real estate dealers in October. The Civil Rights Division of the Justice Department started its own investigation last August.

Blockbusting is a practice where real estate agents generally call white homeowners in an area into which blacks have moved and ask the owners if they would like to sell their homes. They often warn the homeowner that he had better sell immediately before the neighborhood becomes all black.

Prisoners
Bailed Out

EAST MEADOW, N.Y. (AP) — Eighty-four prisoners who were in the Nassau and Suffolk County jails because they couldn't raise bail of $500 or less will be home for Christmas thanks to the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

The Roman Catholic organization put up a fund to bail out the prisoners after they were screened to make sure they were good risks, with families or jobs in their home communities.

Hoffa Reunited With His Wife, Family

By PAUL LeBAR

ST. LOUIS (AP) — James R. Hoffa, the former Teamsters union president, was reunited with his ailing wife and family today after being freed from federal prison by President Nixon.

"I don't believe it, I just don't believe it," Josephine Hoffa exclaimed Thursday night as she warmly embraced her husband at the home of their daughter in suburban Glendale.

"I'm going to be fine now, just fine," said Mrs. Hoffa, who suffered a heart attack 10 months ago and had a mild seizure Wednesday. "I don't believe we've ever had a nicer Christmas."

The reunion came hours after the one-time bad boy of big labor walked out of the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., under the President's order commuting his sentence. He had served four years, nine months and 16 days of a 13-year sentence for jury tampering and mail fraud.

The conditional commutation specifies that Hoffa, 58, may not "engage in the direct or indirect management of any labor organization" until March 6, 1980—the date his full prison term would have ended.

Technically, the President shortened Hoffa's 13-year sentence to 6½ years. With time off for good behavior, Hoffa was eligible for immediate release. He had been turned down three times for parole.

In Detroit, where the Teamsters union has its headquarters, a number of labor leaders joined in praise of the President's action.

"I believe that justice has been served in this situation and the pardon is fully deserved," said United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock in a telegram to Nixon.

Charges Ceasefire Broken

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — American and South Vietnamese forces halted operations in South Vietnam today for a 24-hour Christmas ceasefire and the U.S. Command announced American warplanes attacked another enemy air defense radar site inside North Vietnam.

The allied cease-fire went into effect at 6 p.m. Saigon time, 17 hours after the Viet Cong's unilateral truce of 72 hours began.

But the South Vietnamese command reported that enemy forces staged two attacks during the first hour of the Viet Cong cease-fire, killing three Saigon soldiers and wounding six.

There were no attacks reported against U.S. forces.

Today's strike, and three others Thursday raised to 106 the number of American air strikes inside North Vietnam this year, including 17 in the past two weeks. The latest strike was five miles from the Laos border.

The sudden increase in American attacks is apparently in reaction to the loss of four U.S. fighter-bombers over Laos and North Vietnam last weekend.

One of Thursday's strikes inside North Vietnam was 25 miles from the Laos border and the others were 12 and 19 miles from the border. The U.S. Command claimed the three fighter escorts that carried out the raids were protecting American planes conducting operation over Laos.

A communique said each of the F105 fired an air-to-ground missile at radar sites 53 and 82 miles northwest of the coastal city of Vinh and 26 miles west of Dong Hoi with unknown results. The command said there was no damage to U.S. aircraft.

The command said the raids were carried out against "the hostile actions of enemy radar sites located in North Vietnam."

When asked to explain what the hostile actions were, a command spokesman said he did not know.

It appeared that U.S. pilots have been given broader latitude to fire first.

U.S. pilots are attacking targets they previously ignored and reacting quicker to indirect threats posed by North Vietnamese radar stations.

Postal Rate Hiked,
No Limit on Interest

By JAY PERKINS

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Cost of Living Council has refused to impose controls over interest rates "at this time" but says voluntary restraints will be used in the future.

The council's statement Thursday was immediately criticized by House Banking and Currency Committee Chairman Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., who called it a "sorry holiday greeting to millions of customers."

Patman also accused President Nixon of violating the Economic Stabilization Act by allowing the council to exempt all forms of interest rates without giving a reason for each exemption.

The act requires the President to either take action to stabilize interest rates or make a finding that such action is not necessary. If the President decides the action is not required, he must give his reason.

The council's decision to let interest rates float followed an earlier decision Thursday that allowed the U.S. Postal Service to increase postal rates by merely certifying the increases meet four anti-inflationary conditions.

The Postal Service announced shortly after the council's decision that it would raise third class mail rates by an average of 23.9 per cent effective Jan. 24.

The service had planned to increase third class rates Sept. 15 but that hike was postponed by the wage-price freeze announced by President Nixon Aug. 15.

In other economic developments Thursday, the Price

Commission trimmed a proposed Blue Cross-Blue Shield rate increase for federal employees from the requested 34.1 per cent to 22 per cent. Rep. Jerome R. Waldie, D-Calif., called the 22 per cent figure an exorbitant sign of things to come.

The Blue Cross-Blue Shield decision was the first test of the Price Commission's day-old guidelines on insurance rates. The guidelines say any increases may not be used to fatten profits or cover past losses.

In Detroit, Ford Motor Co. said it had applied for a 1.5 per cent price increase on cars and trucks. If granted, the boost would mark the first time a company had gotten two increase approvals in Phase 2.

The Price Commission approved a 2.9 per cent hike for Ford last month.

India Warns Against Meddling

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Zulfikar Ali Bhutto tightened his grip on Pakistan today by naming an 11-member, leftist-oriented cabinet drawn mainly from his powerful Pakistan Peoples Party.

In India, Prime Minister Indira Gandhi warned that her government would not tolerate meddling by world powers in the India-Pakistan dispute. Although she mentioned no country by name, her remarks were widely interpreted as directed against the United States.

Bhutto, who took power five days ago from the military regime of Gen. Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan, retained the key portfolios of defense, foreign affairs, interior and intra-provincial affairs, indicating he would take day-to-day charge of his nation's campaign to win back East Pakistan, lost in the 14-day war with India.

The Pakistani president also announced he would appoint a commission of inquiry to look into the causes of the war.

Five of the new cabinet ministers were drawn from the West Pakistani province of Punjab where Bhutto's party is strong and only three of the ministers, including Vice President Nurul Amin, did not belong to the Pakistan Peoples Party.

Amin, 78, is the only East Pakistani in the cabinet. However, Bhutto said he plans to name at least three more ministers, including an East Pakistani.

Mrs. Gandhi, speaking in the Indian state of Punjab, was quoted by the government radio as saying her country's victory had "upset the calculations of some powers."

"There have been attempts at interference by some powers and India will not tolerate it," Mrs. Gandhi said. She added that she was not making a threat, but that she would not accept threats from others either.

In Cairo, Pakistan was reported to have asked Egypt to use its good offices with India to resolve "urgent humanitarian problems" arising from the war.

Cairo's semi-official Al Ahram newspaper said Pakistani Ambassador Mohamed Malik made the request in a meeting with Murad Ghaleb, Egyptian minister of state for foreign affairs. Ghaleb later met with India's charge d'affaires, the newspaper said, and the Indian envoy raised the question of formal Egyptian recognition of Bangla Desh, the newly proclaimed nation in East Pakistan.

Ghaleb was quoted as replying that such recognition at present would "complicate the situation" and jeopardize Egypt's mediatory role.

In other developments: President Bhutto, in a letter to the five permanent members of the United Nations Security Council, asked steps be taken to prevent revenge slayings in East Pakistan.

In Dacca, Syed Nazrul Islam, the acting president of Bangla Desh, said his government would demand that India turn over Pakistani soldiers accused of killing Bengalis in the past nine months, United News of India reported. The agency said Islam told newsmen the soldiers would be tried as war criminals under international law.

Holiday Toll

Thinks World Attention to Asia Will Shift to China

WASHINGTON (AP) — World attention to Asia, dominated in recent years by events in Vietnam and other areas of the Southeast, will shift northward next year to China, Japan and Korea, predicts the State Department's top Asian expert.

"It is a period of change," said Marshall Green, assistant secretary of state for East Asian and Pacific Affairs, in an interview.

He pointed to decreasing U.S. involvement in Vietnam, President Nixon's scheduled meeting with Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato next month in San Clemente, Calif., and Nixon's forthcoming trip to China as example of the change.

Northeast Asia is of paramount concern, Green said, because the interests of Communist China, the Soviet Union, Japan and the United States converge there.

China has major foreign affairs problems with the Soviet Union, Taiwan and Japan, he said.

The Soviet Union has an increasing interest in developing Siberia and has been increasing its troop deployments there. Also, because of border differences, Moscow's principal foreign policy concern may be China itself.

For Japan, Northeast Asia is of major concern in all respects. And, the United States has security commitments to Japan, South Korea and Nationalist China in this region.

Korea, the scene of one major war, is in the geographic center of these major-power concerns. And there are interesting signs of talks between North and South Korea through the Red Cross though the significance of the meetings so far is hard to discern, Green said.

In China there have been signs of increasing moderation since the Cultural Revolution ended, he said. There has been greater interest in international affairs.

Nevertheless, Green said, there still is much hostility toward the United States in Peking, Moscow and other communist countries and China probably will continue its efforts to drive a wedge between the United States and Japan.

Despite the "Nixon shocks" of 1971 when Japan was not consulted in advance on the Peking trip announcement or new American economic policy, Green said he believes "our relations with Japan are on a healthier basis today than one year ago when there were problems we had not addressed."

Comedian Details Talk About U.S. Prisoners

By RICHARD BLYSTONE
Associated Press Writer
PHU BAI, Vietnam (AP) — Comedian Bob Hope said a North Vietnamese official told him that American prisoners of war would be released "tomorrow" if President Nixon sets a date for total U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam.

Hope, giving additional details today on his 90-minute talk Thursday with Nguyen Van Thanh, first secretary of the North Vietnamese Embassy in Vientiane, Laos, said:

"We had a long talk about several things. It always came back to the prisoners would be released tomorrow if President Nixon would abide by the seven-point proposal advanced by the North Vietnamese last July."

The seven-point peace plan was advanced by the Communist side at the Paris talks last July 1, and has been rejected by the Nixon administration.

The first point said all U.S. prisoners would be released if the U.S. government sets a terminal date for withdrawal from South Vietnam.

The 68-year-old comedian, speaking to newsmen after a performance for GIs at this northern base, said his chances appear slim for obtaining a visa to enter North Vietnam to negotiate for the release of prisoners as a "private citizen."

"I would say the odds are very long," he declared.

During his meeting with Thanh, Hope made an offer of

$99,280 Grant to Jonesboro

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Environmental Protection Agency has approved a supplemental grant of $99,280 to help finance a waste water treatment project at Jonesboro.

The money will enable the city to finance the construction of a new sewer lift station, sewer lines and a force main in southeast Jonesboro.

Total cost of the project has been estimated at $530,000. The federal contribution has been $295,000.

CENTER OF ATTENTION is a new communications satellite, the second Intelsat IV, assembled in a 29-nation cooperative effort. Nearly 18 feet high and equipped to handle as many as 6,000 two-way telephone calls or 12 simultaneous color TV channels, it will serve the 81-nation Communications Satellite Corp. from stationary orbit over the Atlantic. A similar satellite has been orbiting since January 1970.

Christians Observe Birth of Christ

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Christians around the world turned their thoughts from turmoil today to celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace.

Planeloads of American servicemen from Vietnam joined their families for the holidays; 100 children—50 Protestant and 50 Roman Catholic—were flown from strife-torn Belfast for a danger-free Christmas in London, and Arabs from neighboring states streamed to Israeli-occupied Bethlehem for observances in the city where Christ was born.

In South Vietnam, Communist and allied forces scheduled cease-fires, military chefs prepared turkey dinners with all the trimmings for the 162,500 GIs still in the country, hospitals at Long Binh were gaily decorated, Christmas trees and tinsel went on sale in Saigon, and such entertainers as Bob Hope, Johnny Grant and Martha Raye led troupes of entertainers to big American bases.

Homeward-bound GIs had special cargo aboard their plane as it landed in Chicago on Thursday: An 11-month old war orphan to be adopted by a Bowie, Md. couple. "It's just a fantastic Christmas," exulted Mrs. Gary Allen when they presented her with the child.

The religious warfare in Northern Ireland was temporarily forgotten by 100 school-children from the bullet-scarred Protestant Shankill Road and Catholic Ardoyne sectarian strongholds. An insurance company paid their way to London to meet Santa Claus, visit a pantomime theater and see the city's Christmas lights. The children sang, cheered and laughed as they stepped from their plane in the British capital.

Bethlehem braced for 35,000 pilgrims, among them Arabs from neighboring states. Every Christmas since Israel occupied the city in 1967, Arabs have been permitted to attend holy ceremonies, despite the fact that their countries are engaged in a nonshooting war with the Jewish state.

Unseasonable Warm Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The unseasonable warm, spring-like weather will continue through Christmas in Arkansas, even though a cold front is in the forecast.

The National Weather Service says a cold front will move through the state today and tonight from the north. However, the highs for Christmas Day will still range in the upper 40s north to near 70s in the south.

No precipitation, including rain, is in the forecast over the holidays.

The highs around the state Thursday ranged from 57 at Jonesboro to 68 at Texarkana and El Dorado.

Overnight lows were Fayetteville, 43; Harrison, 42; Jonesboro, 47; Pine Bluff, 51; Texarkana, 56; El Dorado, 54; Memphis, 48; Little Rock, 47; and Fort Smith, 41.

No precipitation was recorded during the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. today.

Tree Profits Go to Health

By BILL JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The glow from hundreds of Christmas trees in Oklahoma City homes is reflected in Agua Prieta, Mexico, promising better health care for its poor.

The trees are sold by Explorer Scout Post 94, and all the proceeds go to help build and equip a hospital in the Mexican city just across the border from Douglas, Ariz.

"That hospital is being built in the most desolate part of town you've ever seen," said Frank V. Hinson, adult leader of the post. "It's a no-income area, and the people don't have anything."

This is the fourth year the boys of the post have sold trees for the hospital.

"Selling Christmas trees is the only money-making project we have through the whole year," Hinson said. "With what we will send this year, we've sent enough money to get the building built."

Hinson said the post has raised between $4,000 and $4,500 for the hospital. In addition, he said, he has taken eight truckloads of equipment "ranging from hospital beds and an operating table to hot water heaters and a 500-gallon propane tank" to the hospital.

He estimated the value of the donated equipment—which he said he "scrounged" from various sources—at between $15,000 and $20,000.

The hospital will be operated by Roman Catholic nuns, Hinson said. "It will have about 20 rooms, and probably will take care of 35 to 40 patients. There will be strictly voluntary payment for care, whatever the people can afford. If they can pay 50 cents, that's fine. If they can't pay anything, that's fine, too."

U.S., Russian Ships Collide

NEW YORK (AP) — An American cargo ship and a Russian fishing trawler collided off the New Jersey coast Thursday night then the U.S. ship limped into port under escort by rescue craft.

No injuries were reported in the collision. Coast Guard officials said a 10-by-6-foot hole was smashed in the side of the American ship, the Jefferson Davis, but that it stopped leaking several hours after the collision 26 miles off the coast near Barnegat Lighthouse.

The Russian vessel reported "severe damage below the waterline," but gave no further details and later said it needed no assistance, a Coast Guard spokesman said.

The crash occurred in smooth seas and good weather and the Coast Guard said it had no information on the circumstances. The spokesman said, however, the position of the damage to the Jefferson Davis indicated the trawler probably was responsible.

The Jefferson Davis, a 600-foot cargo vessel owned by the Waterman Co. of Wilmington, Del., was carrying general cargo to the Middle East, the Coast Guard said. It had a crew of 42.

Thinks Failures Cause of Stepup in Conquest of Cancer

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers says North Vietnamese forces are striking Laos and Cambodia because of "the failure of their military activity in South Vietnam."

And the U.S. response, he says, will be "to continue the President's policy of supporting the South Vietnamese in Cambodia, and to give air support in Laos."

Southeast Asia and the India-Pakistan conflict were main items at a year end news conference Thursday by Rogers.

He credited the year as one with substantial accomplishments over-all, listing the U.S. troop withdrawal and Vietnamization program as the No. 1 success and the India-Pakistan war as the main disappointment.

Rogers said U.S. force pullouts from South Vietnam will continue in 1972. And the Vietnamization program of turning over the war to the South Vietnamese is working so well that Hanoi has turned toward Laos and Cambodia in hopes of greater military success, he said.

The North Vietnamese objective is still "to conquer South Vietnam," he said.

U.S. officials have been concerned over the recent scale of Communist activity in the two countries adjoining Vietnam, particularly the Communists' sudden conquest of Laos' Plain of Jars. Four U.S. Phantom jets were downed last weekend while operating over Laos.

Rogers declined to say whether U.S. planes would be ordered to fly more into North Vietnam.

As for the India-Pakistan issue, Rogers withheld immediate judgement on how future Washington relations with New Delhi will fare.

He said "that depends on events," including India's promises to pursue a neutral, nonaligned policy hereafter. India signed a treaty with the Soviet Union last summer.

"We have no apologies to make" for U.S. Ambassador George Bush's statements at the United Nations criticizing India in the conflict with Pakistan, he said. "But we have no desire now to continue discussions along those lines," he added.

He said the United States is not now considering recognizing former East Pakistan as a new, independent country of "Bangladesh." However, "U.S. policy is to let the people in that area determine their own future," he said.

Rogers also voiced a hands-off policy concerning Bangla Desh leader Mujib Rahman, who is being held in West Pakistan. "We think this is a matter that should be decided by the people concerned," he said.

Picks Leader in Conquest of Cancer

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The man picked by President Nixon to oversee the government's new crusade against cancer cautions against expecting "any short-term miracles" from the massive, multibillion-dollar effort.

"I think it would be a great mistake to build up false hopes, to talk about crash programs or to put success in any time frame," said Benno C. Schmidt in an interview after he was named chairman of the President's Cancer Panel.

"All we can promise the American people is that we will give them the very best program American science can provide."

Nixon made the same point Thursday when he signed the National Cancer Act and launched what he called "an unprecedented attack" and "a great crusade" against the disease which each year kills more Americans than died in combat during all of World War II.

"We would not want to raise false hopes by simply the signing of an act," Nixon told the congressmen, public officials and health group leaders at the bill-signing ceremony, "but we can say this:

"That for those who have cancer, and who are looking for success in this field, they at least can have the assurance that everything that can be done by government, everything that can be done by voluntary agencies in this great, powerful, rich country, now will be done and that will give some hope and we hope those hopes will not be disappointed."

Later, interviewed by telephone in his New York office, Schmidt said he believes the legislation "will give us the opportunity and the foundation to mount a sustained program."

With the $1.6 billion authorized by the act, Schmidt said, programs under way at the National Cancer Institute and National Institutes of Health can be accelerated.

"We are not talking about abandoning any existing programs. We won't be stopping, then re-starting. We will simply be building on" existing programs, he said.

3 Killed on Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The long Christmas holiday weekend has already claimed the lives of three persons in Arkansas.

Two persons were killed as the result of a one-car accident which occurred near Marked Tree on Interstate 30 Thursday night.

State Police identified the victims as Norman Deavenport Jr., 19, and David T. Brewer, 18, both of Trumann. Police said Deavenport lost control of the car he was driving and it crashed into a bridge abutment.

Brewer died this morning in a Memphis hospital.

Freddie Kirksey, 19, also of Trumann, was injured in that crash.

Richard D. Green, 23, of Little Rock, was killed Thursday night also when he lost control of his car while attempting to pass another car on Interstate 30 near Arkadelphia.

Police said his car overturned.

The Associated Press Christmas holiday death count period began at 6 p.m. Thursday and ends at midnight Sunday.

What's in a Word?

By ERNESTINE GUGLIELMO

VICTORIAN COP—"Cop" is usually on word lists prepared for parents so they understand what their kids are saying. According to these definitions, "to cop" means to get drugs. But in current slang the word means to score or gain. It turns out that the current slang isn't too new. Researchers at Merriam-Webster say that the word was used in the 19th-century Victorian underworld. Then "cop" meant the same thing: "To take over, win or obtain."

But some things have changed. "Snow dropper" now would mean heroin user, but back in the underground of yore a snow dropper meant "someone who stole sheets from a clothes line." A definite change in times.

A DIRTY WORD—Singer Gunga Raven said that in famous four-letter word at a concert in Cherry Hill, N.J. Nothing unusual, except she was arrested for public profanity because she said it into the microphone. Gunga Zelkowitz (her real name) was released on $105 bond. Her next scheduled engagement will be in court on Jan. 6.

ENGLAND SWINGS?—Hair's mass performed in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine went over rather well here. In fact, RCA even put out an album of Galt MacDermot's "Mass in F." But in London the response wasn't as good.

The cast of "Hair" was invited to the Anglican church for a special service. While the group was in church singing songs from "Hair" as well as the "Mass in F." demonstrators stood outside the church and sang hymns and carried banners to protest the church's tribute to "Hair." The objections were that the music from "Hair" praised drugs, sex and profanity. But Canon Patrick Tuft, also chaplain to the theater where "Hair" performs, disagrees, saying that the play has "a very good message."

ECO-ART—The rage is on to make art objects from waste products. Old cans are painted and turned into decorative mobiles, paper weights or parts for a collage. Foam trays that are used to pack meat, fish and poultry are transformed into painted flowers, bracelets, pins and colorful boxes. The people into this eco-art claim it's cheap and good ecology.

LIB TAKES A TURN—The attempts of women's liberationists to desexualize Ivy League colleges have developed a new twist with women's schools trying to remain single sex. Mount Holyoke College, Wellesley, Chatham, Wilson and Mary Baldwin have all voted to remain for women only.

Even the brochures for women's colleges have changed. No longer do they meekly claim to be as good as the coed schools. Now they claim to be better. The pamphlets tell of the disadvantages of coed universities, where women are allegedly regarded as second-class students. The all-female school is the place where the woman comes into her own, according to recent hard-sell brochures.

because she had lost the most weight during the month of December.

Punch and low-calorie cookies were served to 22.

Our old friend the Unlucky Expert had us cornered again.

He sat East and the bidding had gone as shown in the box. West had opened the king of spades. South trumped, cashed dummy's ace and queen of trumps, ruffed back to his hand with the last spade, drew trumps and eventually played West for three hearts to the queen to wind up making his doubled slam.

The Unlucky Expert told us in several thousand, unhappy words how his partner should have passed the five-spade double. He pointed out that greed was a terrible thing and only greed caused the redouble. He also mentioned that a club lead would beat the slam.

He was correct on all counts. Certainly West should not have redoubled, but we always think that the Unlucky Expert is likely to have some part in causing his own misfortunes.

When North ran to six diamonds, the Unlucky Expert did not have to double. He certainly could have passed and left things to his partner. Or he might even have bid six spades on the theory that West just had to be void of diamonds and that East's singleton heart would leave a finesse for the spade slam.

The bidding has been:

 A—Bid three spades. This is a very proper preempt, vulnerable or not.

TODAY'S QUESTION

West bids four clubs. Your partner doubles. What do you do now?

Airlanes Cleared, Santa Is on Way

Editor's Note: "Where is Santa Claus right now?" millions of children are asking. Here is the reassuring answer to their question—to be read aloud by parents to their kids just before bedtime.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — He's off!

Santa Claus is on his way at last! The jolly old saint and his famous reindeer are zooming through the arctic skies right now, heading for the American border. He'll reach it tonight.

The Northern Lights switched on to a clear steady green—the "go ahead" signal. And the Royal Canadian Police sent Santa this message:

"We are clearing all air lanes in your path, old boy. There is no speed limit for you tonight. The sky is yours. Go as fast as you like. Good luck."

And Santa Claus needed that wide, clear road in the sky. For his big, red sled was packed so full of gifts it overflowed.

"Oh, dear, oh dear," worried Santa, just before the takeoff. "I hope none of those presents falls out and hits some poor innocent down there. I believe this must be the heaviest load I've had in 20 years."

"What is he fretting about?" whispered Donner to Vixen. "He's only riding in the sled. We have to pull it."

Vixen laughed so hard the bells on her harness tinkled in

Questions, Answers About SS

By GLENDA BOZEMAN

Q. My daughter is disabled and receives social security on my record. If I should die, would her check stop also?

A. No, your daughter will continue to be eligible for payment as your survivor. In fact, the amount she receives will be increased.

Q. My son had been receiving social security benefits until he became 18, and the checks stopped. He is still in school. Why did his checks stop?

A. Get in touch with your social security office. Your son needs to complete a "Statement of School Attendance." If he is a full-time student in an accredited school, he will be eligible to receive social security benefits until he is 22.

Q. There is no social security office where I live, and I need to apply for social security payments. Do I have to go all the way to Texarkana to file my claim?

A. No. You can now file your claim by telephone. Call the Texarkana office collect, at area code 214, phone 794-3755. You can complete your application without leaving home.

merry music. And all the other reindeer laughed, too.

As Santa Claus climbed onto the seat of the sled, puffing because he has gained some weight this winter, three black and white penguins waddled across the snow in front of the reindeer.

"Here, here, get out of the way please," said Santa Claus importantly. Then he said, surprised: "Why, what are you penguins doing up at the North Pole anyway? You're supposed to be at the South Pole."

"We're on a vacation," said one of the penguins. "We're looking for Florida. Have you seen it anywhere?"

"Climb aboard, climb aboard!" boomed Santa. "I'll drop you off there."

Just then Mrs. Santa Claus came running out waving a long piece of paper.

"You almost forgot your list of good children," she said.

"Never mind," said Santa. "I don't need it. This year I am going to give a present to every little boy and girl, good or bad. The bad ones will feel sorry then, because they know they don't deserve a nice present. It'll make 'em try harder to be good next year."

Santa stood up to crack his whip in the air—the signal to be off. But then he heard a small voice crying:

"Wait, please wait." It was Cluny, Santa's favorite little elf. The other elves gossiped about Cluny and said she was clumsy at making toys. But Santa knew it was only because she was so young. He liked her because she had a good heart.

"Here," said the tiny elf, holding up a small shiny figure. "What's this?" he grumbled. "You're too late. My pack is already loaded."

"It is only my present to the world. I made it at night in my room—all by myself."

Santa took the little figure from her hands. It was a beautiful angel with butterfly wings and a robe of purest white. In her hand the angel held a small magic wand.

"It is the Angel of Peace," explained Cluny.

"Why, Cluny," said Santa, "this is better than all the other gifts put together. I'll see that your angel waves her wand for one day at least over every home on earth."

And he picked up Cluny and gave her a big whisker-tickly kiss on her cheek. Then he picked up his long whip again—it had a feather on the end—and cracked it sharply in the frosty air.

"Ho, ho, ho, here we go!" he roared. "Ho, ho, ho, here we go!"

The eight reindeer leaped forward and the big sled began sliding through the snow. Faster, faster, faster, faster—and then they were off the ground and into the air.

Santa was on his way, and tonight, if you go to bed, he will come to your house, wherever you are.

Some Get Depressed During Christmas

By GEORGE W. CORNELL, AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — In the midst of all the holiday hoopla and cheeriness, some people get deeply depressed, even suicidal—a reverse reaction which a team of psychologists call the Christmas "clench."

Ordinarily, they say, it occurs in people who long so intensely for simple, childish delights that they suppress the urge completely. And this makes them terribly sad.

"They should learn to 'let go' a little more, not overdoing it and expecting too much, but taking it easy and counting on having a modicum of fun, says Drs. Barry and Patricia M. Bricklin, of Wayne, Pa.

"Just as an individual may clench his muscles into a tight knot, so too may a human put a 'clench' into his psychic apparatus," the doctors say, adding that this usually is what causes the holiday blues.

The husband-and-wife team of psychologists for years have spent each Christmas Eve counseling and trying to console depressed callers, some so desperate they telephone without even knowing the doctors personally.

They write in Youth magazine, a monthly for teen-agers of the United Church of Christ, that the Christmas season heightens the desire "to relive our fantasies of childhood, to be catered to and indulged."

"For most young children this is completely attainable: their parents do indulge them. It is also at least partly attainable for the great majority of adults. The adult vicariously enjoys the joy of his children. But the process breaks down for some people."

They have such intense childhood longings that they're afraid to release them, fearing it would swamp them in helpless chaos, the doctors say, adding that such feelings may stem from either of two situations, namely:

—An inadequate childhood. "Humans have a hard time letting go of things that should have been good but weren't. The lost childhoods are sought in the present, with the aim of reliving them in a finally fulfilling way."

—An overindulged childhood. "These people may have been so overindulged as children that they were unable to get on with the job of maturing."

Either of these background conditions may cause people to choke off their real feelings in a season accentuating childish joys, and leave them bitter and downcast, the psychologists saying, adding: "Typically, the teen-ager has such intense longings to be a child again that he must inhibit his response to Christmas in total ... He is afraid to tempt himself with a small dose of something he craves in such huge quantities."

To really enjoy Christmas, the psychologists say, one needs to be both a generous "giver" as well as a gracious "receiver"—with both essential to sharing in the spirit of the season.

Christmas to Be Brighter

MOUNDSVILLE, W.Va. (AP)

—Christmas will be brighter for 11 teen-agers at the Marshall County Child Shelter, thanks primarily to the spirit of giving among inmates at the West Virginia penitentiary.

Nearly $300 was collected to provide gifts at a party Wednesday night for the teen-agers being held on charges of committing minor crimes.

Nancy Clark, an assistant to the business manager at the prison, thought of the collection after recalling that the shelter "didn't have a Christmas tree or much of a Christmas" last year.

Mrs. Clark collected about $33 from prison employees and $50 from the Moundsville Jaycee chapter, then the prisoners got interested and gave $210.

Each teen-ager was given a complete outfit of school clothing and a watch.

Gophers Win Hot Tempered Game 70-56

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Tony Johnson and Dennis Bell were mad. Clyde Turner was very mad. And Bill Musselman, oh, was he mad. It was just a mad, mad world Thursday night at the Minnesota-Drake basketball game.

Johnson and Bell, two of Drake's players, were hit with technicals, as was Minnesota's Turner in a hot-tempered and foul-punctuated game won by the Gophers, 70-56.

Musselman, the Minnesota coach, decided it was best not to talk about officials James Rain and Jack Savidge, who called 51 fouls between them.

"I'd rather not say publicly what I think," Musselman said, or rather didn't say.

While Musselman was quiet, the 13,112 fans in Minneapolis had plenty to say.

The demonstrative crowd screamed blue murder and littered the basketball court with paper, coins and metal soda cans to protest when Drake apparently changed players while the game was in progress and was not called for the violation.

It held the game up seven minutes.

Things were decidedly more quiet in other college basketball action, although explosive, top-ranked UCLA and power-studded South Carolina, the No. 3 club, blasted their respective opponents.

UCLA crunched Texas Christian 119-81 and South Carolina breezed by Pitt 69-59.

Sixth-ranked Ohio State topped Wisconsin-Milwaukee 78-63, No. 9 Long Beach State overwhelmed Valley State 103-60 and 10th-ranked St. John's, N.Y., edged New Mexico 95-92 to win the Lobo Classic tournament in Albuquerque, N.M.

Bill Walton scored 31 points and got 16 rebounds to lead unbeaten UCLA to its sixth straight triumph this year.

Kevin Joyce and Tok Tiker scored 42 points between them to lead undefeated South Carolina to its fifth straight victory. Joyce scored 14 of his 24 points in the first half to help the Gamecocks take a 34-24 lead at intermission. Riker dumped in 18 points and helped the winners own the board.

Luke Witte scored 20 points and grabbed 20 rebounds and Alan Hornsby, making his first start of the season after an injury, had 14 points to pace Ohio State.

Penn, the country's No. 13 team, clubbed Western Kentucky 88-79 as Bob Morse scored 30 points and Cincinnati upset No. 17 Ohio University 104-67 behind Lloyd Batts' 30 points.

Cincinnati Coach Tay Baker was elated over the victory. "I was thoroughly enjoying myself, just sitting there and watching them. My team was just great," he said.

Ohio Coach Jim Snyder disagreed with the definition of greatness.

"They are not outstanding," he said. "They're good. But there are a lot of good teams. I'll say this, though. Batts is a great basketball player."

Blue-Gray Game Workout Start

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — The defense seems to be holding the upper hand as both the North and South squads continue trying to organize themselves for the 34th annual Blue-Gray Football Classic to be played here next Tuesday night.

In Thursday's workouts, Blue coach John Jardine of Wisconsin emphasized the defense's present superiority, saying they were "way ahead of the offense."

He pointed particularly to the work of the secondary. "We were having a hard time completing a pass on them," he said.

The Grays, meanwhile, tried to get their squad of college stars working as a unit.

West Sweep Completed by Knicks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Knicks may be tired, but they're happy.

Playing in their third West Coast city in three nights, the Knicks completed a sweep of their far west swing Thursday night by outlasting the Portland Trailblazers 120-117, thanks to four free throws in the final 33 seconds by New York's Walt Frazier.

In the other two National Basketball Association games Thursday night, Cleveland edged Atlanta 115-110 and Chicago downed Phoenix 117-108 in overtime.

The weary Knicks, who defeated Golden State in Oakland Tuesday night, then beat the SuperSonics in Seattle Wednesday night, saw Portland chip an 11-point lead down to three in the closing minutes before Frazier led the game with his free throws.

The 6-foot-4 guard from Southern Illinois paced all scorers with 36 points, while Stan McKenzie scored 27 points for Portland—20 of them in the final period. New York's Jerry Lucas and Portland's Geoff Petrie each had 24.

The Knicks, who have won seven of their last eight games, now trail the Boston Celtics by 1½ games in the NBA's Atlantic Division. Portland, 8-27, is in the Pacific Division cellar, a whopping 24½ games back of Los Angeles.

A former Atlanta player, Butch Beard, scored 30 points to spark the Cavaliers. Walt Wesley also had 30 for Cleveland, John Johnson added 24 and Bingo Smith 20.

Smith put Cleveland ahead to stay with a 12-foot jumper, breaking a 74-74 tie in the final two minutes of the third period.

The Suns led Chicago by as much as 11 points in the second half, but after Phoenix forward Connie Hawkins fouled out with 2:24 remaining, the Bulls went ahead 98-96 on a basket by Jim King with 1:08 to go.

Dick Van Arsdale, who led all scorers with 28 points, sent the game into overtime with 13 seconds left, but Chicago outscored the Suns 19-10 in the extra period.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Iowa State Cyclones came from behind late in the second half to hand the Arkansas Razorbacks a 96-93 defeat in a non-conference basketball game here Thursday night.

Clint Harris hit a layup and Martinez Denmon connected on a free throw in the final minute of play to assure the Cyclones the victory.

Harris hit his basket with 43 seconds remaining. A last-ditch effort by the Arkansas defense failed and Denmon's free throw with 10 seconds left put the game on ice.

The Porkers led most of the game. They spotted Iowa State six quick points and then came back with nine straight and never trailed until late in the second half.

Denmon hit a jumper with 6:15 remaining and the momentum began to swing toward the Cyclones.

Martin Terry led all scorers with 27 points. Tom O'Connor led Iowa State with 24.

Arkansas' record dropped to 3-5. The Razorbacks travel to Memphis State on New Year's Eve for their next game.

Cowboys Picked to Win Over Minnesota 24-17

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League playoffs begin this weekend and the Baltimore Colts begin defense of their Super Bowl crown after having had to defend their integrity for their second-place finish in American Conference East.

So look for the Colts to blast the Browns off the field in answer to their critics.

In the other playoffs, it looks from here like Dallas can topple Minnesota, Kansas City handle Miami and Washington sting San Francisco.

The Dallas-Minnesota and Miami-Kansas City games are scheduled for 1 p.m. and 4 p.m., EST, Saturday with national television coverage by CBS and NBC, respectively.

The Baltimore-Cleveland and Washington-San Francisco games are scheduled for 1 p.m. and 4 p.m., EST, Sunday with television coverage by NBC and CBS, respectively.

Here's a rundown of each game, noting that last week's predictions produced a best-of-the-season 10-3 record:

SATURDAY'S GAMES
Dallas 24, Minnesota 17—The Cowboys have been amazing since Roger Staubach took over at quarterback, reeling off seven consecutive victories. They led the NFL in scoring during the regular season with 406 points and should be able to move the ball despite the fact the Vikings allowed a league low of 139 points. Dallas just has too many weapons for Minnesota to stop.

Kansas City 34, Miami 24—The Chiefs and Dolphins have met six times previously and the score is 6-0 Kansas City. With Otis Taylor as the key weapon, the Chiefs should make it seven in succession.

Peterson declined to disclose terms of the contract offered him by the Oilers.

Peterson said the contract was not offered until late Thursday afternoon.

Concerning his contract with Rice, Peterson said, "I don't think there will be any problem."

The whole thing started Wednesday when Ed Hughes was fired as Houston's head coach in a dispute with Adams and General Manager John Breen.

"My deal with Peterson was if Ed Hughes agreed to stay, I'd release him," Adams said. "Ed chose not to resolve our one obstacle. Peterson is still committed to me, to coach the Oilers. I would guess he will have to get his release (from Rice)."

Peterson, contacted in Montgomery, Ala., where he is a coach in the Blue-Gray All-Star football game, said he had made the commitment to the Oilers.

But Peterson said he also talked with Denver concerning the Broncos job.

Bruins are four points behind New York and one back of Montreal in the race for the NHL East title.

The Sabres' No. 1 line of Gil Perreault, Richard Martin and Mike Byers accounted for all four Buffalo goals, Perreault netting two and his linemates one apiece. The Bruins, who blew a 3-1 lead and trailed 4-3, salvaged a tie on a third-period goal by Ken Hodge.

Boston took the early lead on goals by Derek Sanderson, Reg Leach and Phil Esposito.

The Sabres-Bruins game was the only National Hockey League contest played Thursday night.

"I think Boston is the best team in the league," stated Imlach. "They have a lot of power. I would like to win, but let's just say I'm pretty satisfied with the tie."

Johnson was not discussing what next year holds in store for the club that just ended a 1-13 campaign, Saban promised no miracles.

"Just to get back to a 7-7 record will be all right with me for now," he remarked. "There are too many unpredictables in football, although Harvey said to me he can't see why I shouldn't win 10 games next year."

Wilson revealed he had approached Saban about coming to Buffalo shortly after Saban stepped down as the Broncos coach Nov. 17.

He did not make public the terms of Saban's contract, but said it was one of "many years." Saban's earlier stint with the Bills rested on four one-year pacts.

Purple Gang, Snow Await the Cowboys

By ALEX SACHARE

Associated Press Sports Writer

What is Santa Claus bringing Roger Staubach for Christmas?

The Purple Gang, sub-freezing temperatures, a chance of snow and a shot at the National Football League's Super Bowl, that's what.

Temperatures ranging from 18 to 28 degrees—above zero, that is—are forecast for the Minneapolis-St. Paul area Saturday, when the Minnesota Vikings host Staubach and the Dallas Cowboys in a nationally televised (CBS, 1 p.m., EST) National Football Conference semifinal game.

Later Saturday, veteran quarterback Le Dawson will lead the Kansas City Chiefs against the Miami Dolphins in an American Football Conference semifinal clash (NBC, 4 p.m., EST).

On Sunday, Johnny Unitas will be at the helm when the Baltimore Colts travel to Cleveland to meet the Browns (NBC, 1 p.m., EST) in the other AFC semifinal, while George Allen takes his Over-the-Hill Gang and the rest of the Washington Redskins to San Francisco to face the 49ers (CBS, 4 p.m., EST) in the other NFC semifinal.

Since Coach Tom Landry tabbed him as Dallas' No. 1 quarterback, Staubach has led the Cowboys to seven consecutive victories, the NFC East crown and an 11-3 record overall. The Cowboys averaged 29 points per game, with Staubach working with running backs Cal Hill, Duane Thomas and Walt Garrison and throwing to wide receivers like Lance Alworth and

Saban Returns to Buffalo Bills

BUFFALO (AP) — Lou Saban, the new head coach of the Buffalo Bills National Football League team, said Thursday he would be satisfied if the Bills manage to balance their losses with victories next season.

Saban added he wanted to build and develop the youthful club, but said he was also thinking about trades.

His comments were made in a press conference which heard Bills' owner Ralph Wilson Jr. confirm everybody's hunch—that Saban, Denver's head coach for the past five seasons, was replacing Harvey Johnson at the Buffalo helm.

For Saban, the switch was a return to familiar territory. He coached the Bills from 1962-65 and in the last two seasons saw them win American Football League championships.

Discussing what next year holds in store for the club that just ended a 1-13 campaign, Saban promised no miracles.

"Just to get back to a 7-7 record will be all right with me for now," he remarked. "There are too many unpredictables in football, although Harvey said to me he can't see why I shouldn't win 10 games next year."

Wilson revealed he had approached Saban about coming to Buffalo shortly after Saban stepped down as the Broncos coach Nov. 17.

Douglas M. Williamson, also a Yerger High School graduate and Tuskegee Institute in the field of Engineering, was employed by the United States Department of Labor after graduation for a short period. Then he served his two years in the U.S. Military Service. After being released from military service, he was given his same job back with the Department of Labor. He enrolled for night classes for graduate work in the field of Engineering in the University of New Jersey. He commuted 100 miles to attend these classes, and he has completed all of his class work and now working on his research paper for graduation. He is anxiously looking forward to having his Master's Degree conferred in May, 1972.

Samuel Wesley Williamson, a graduate of Smackover Training and Bishop College in the field of Business Administration, completed his two years of Military Service in August, 1971. After being released from active military duty, he moved his family back to Hope and commuted to Henderson State College in Arkadelphia daily in order to accumulate twelve hours of advance work in Accounting which would have monetary value on his salary with the Rice Field Oil Company in Dallas, where he was employed before entering services. He completed the courses December 21 and moved his family back to Dallas, Wednesday, December 22. There, he is to take his same position with a promotion he held before entering U.S. Services, on January 1. His brother, K.S. Williamson, a teacher in the Oakgrove School at Rosston, went along with them to spend part of his Christmas vacation there.

We don't intend to get into an argument with Old Scrooge, but we feel that he should have bid four hearts himself when his partner bid three no-trump. If Scrooge and partner were using the Jacoby Transfer Bid they might have gotten themselves a real Christmas present at six clubs.

Scrooge would respond with the two-diamond transfer and South would dutifully bid two hearts. Scrooge would not want to commit the hand to hearts, so he would bid three clubs to show his second suit.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

How to Avoid Blood Sugar Woes

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Interestingly enough the problem of stomach acidity, obesity (but sometimes weight loss) and low blood sugar may all be interrelated. How can you avoid these problems?

One approach is the diet. Carbohydrates should be obtained from vegetables and fruit, preferably with lots of roughage. By limiting the amount of sugar in the diet the blood sugar won't rise sharply and this will help prevent a rebound low blood sugar. The inclusion of adequate amounts of protein and fat provide sufficient calories and helps prevent rapid emptying of the stomach. You don't need to eat a lot of animal fats. (I would recommend against overdoing that because of their own adverse effects on health.) But you can use lean meats, low-fat or fortified skim milk and uncreamed cottage cheese. Fish, poultry and vegetable fats will provide sufficient polyunsaturated fat.

Such a diet is designed to smooth out the absorption of sugars from the digestive tract by avoiding a peak load of sweets and preventing rapid emptying of the stomach contents.

Tobacco and coffee often add to the symptoms of low blood sugar by enhancing the effects of adrenalin that is normally poured out when the blood sugar is too low.

Medicine used to block the action of the nerves that stimulate the stomach to form acid-pepsin juice have two actions. They decrease the formation of excess insulin that causes the attack and they decrease the contractions of the stomach. This latter action tends to delay emptying of the stomach and helps prevent the overly rapid absorption of sugar into the bloodstream that sets the stage for rebound hypoglycemia.

Since excess insulin can stimulate the stomach to pour out excess acid-pepsin, controlling the low blood sugar problem from this cause helps prevent problems of stomach acidity. Thus either treating low blood sugar, or taking medicines that block the nerves to the stomach may be helpful in relieving symptoms. By controlling the hypoglycemia and the excess acid the stimulus to eat is not so great and it is possible to correct an overeating problem. It is this problem that frequently causes obesity in people with mild hypoglycemia problems.

I want to say again that the type of low blood sugar I have discussed is the frequent type associated with mild disturbances of normal body functions. There are other rare causes, like cases of tumor of the pancreas, insulin, liver disease and diseases of the endocrine glands. But for the vast majority of people, attention to the diet along the lines discussed here will go a long way toward relieving symptoms.

The First Christmas Provided an Answer

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
NEW YORK (AP) — Sometimes a man prays. But to whom? Who is God? That's the ancient question. It's still the basic one. Who are you, God? What do you stand for? To what kind of entity do I address my plea? My cry?

An answer was given through the first Christmas. Until then, there was utter confusion about it.

Although few people in modern times stop to realize it, the world was a bewildering chaos of many rival "gods" of imagination or superstition until Jesus came along and said it straight and clear:

"You shall know the truth..." God is your own Father who gives you life itself, who loves you intensely, who shares your every moment, who wants you to be your best, but who forgives you when you aren't, accepting you, renewing you to hope.

"Take heart...be of good cheer...we speak of what we know...For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son...not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him."

That is the word Jesus brought to humanity. He is the "Way" by which men found out whom to pray to. He made known their God. That is the big thing that happened through the birthday celebrated this Saturday.

"...And the truth will make you free." It encircled the earth.

Until then, only the tiny, remote land of Israel, the buffeted, overrun, trampled little bastion of Judaism, possessed the concept of one, universal, sustaining God.

All the rest of mankind throughout the advanced civilizations around the Mediterranean and into the far reaches of the Orient, Africa and Europe, had blurred, motley ideas about innumerable competing "gods" and "goddesses."

And none was named self-giving "Love" which is the Father Jesus points to as God of all.

Polytheism prevailed in the state "gods" of the Roman empire and in the ancient pantheons of Greece and Egypt, as well as in the religions of the Far East and the nature "gods" of Africa and northern Europe.

There were animal "gods," mountain "gods," storm "gods," "gods" of rivers, forests and seas, of war, intellect and fertility. Statues and temples to them towered over the cities, enshrining their often orgiastic rites.

Judaism alone, in that world of 2,000 years ago, had raised its tiny beacon of monotheism — of one infinite, almighty, life-giving Creator, a single omnipresent God summoning men to justice, mercy and redemption of the earth.

Through this obscure, ancient tribe, the "light of the world" came. In this small, oppressed little country of Israel, repeatedly under the heel of pagan conquerors, the first Christmas dawned. To the Jews, Jesus was born.

It was a turning point in the religious history of the world, lifting its ethics and ideals, illuminating at large its faith in one God. "Father..." he prayed at the end, "I have manifested Thy name to men."

By doing so, by showing the Father's concern for all persons, he transformed human values. Until then the poor, the weak, the alien strangers were generally considered mere pawns of the powerful, and life was cheap, infanticide common.

"Blessed are the poor...those who mourn...the merciful...those who are persecuted...I come that they may have life, and have it abundantly." He gave a new dignity to being man, a holy value to human life itself.

Although Jews had held determinedly to this view and to its monotheistic faith through all the pressures of pagan military occupation, including that of Rome when Jesus was born, their faith had remained limited to Judaism alone.

But Jesus' coming changed all that, and through his followers who came to be called Christians, spread new understanding of divine reality around the globe. "I have set before you an open door, and no man can shut it."

From then on the idea of one sovereign, caring God grew and became prevalent, not only in Christianity and Judaism, but later in Islam, also influencing other Eastern religions. "Behold, I make all things new"

Through him, he said, "God has come near to you," a Father who loves without limit, who cherishes the least and lowliest, who numbers even the hairs of your head, who is with us and for us.

So now we know. "Let not your hearts be troubled...Abide in my love..." And the angels sang, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased!"

THOUGHTS
For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up... Eccl. 3:1, 3.

Regret for time wasted can become a power for food in the time that remains, if we will only stop the waste and the idle, useless regretting. Arthur Brisbane, journalist

And let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart... Gal. 6:9

Opportunity rarely knocks until you are ready. And few people have ever been really ready without recognizing opportunity's knock. Channing Pollock

It's good to have a plan and the things made in a day. But it's good to check once in a while to make sure that you haven't lost the things that can't be bought. George H. Meier, author

Open at Christmas

Each year, millions celebrate the birth of Christ with parties, presents, and shouts of "Peace on Earth, Good will toward all men." And who amongst us would deny that they mean what they say, for at Christmas time, men everywhere want fighting to cease and love and brotherhood and peace to reign.

But after the holidays, after the parties have stopped, after the decorations are stored, how many of us honestly strive to make their Christmas wish of Peace and Good will a year-long affair?

All too often our Christmas spirit is shoved back on the shelf with the decorations, to be forgotten until next year. If this is true with you, if you don't have the Christmas spirit after the holidays, then you didn't really have it.

What a different world we would have if we kept our Christmas spirit, our Christmas zeal and our Spirit of Love alive all year long. Just remember, you can't celebrate His birth when you mock His life. Have you really opened your Christmas box yet? You can open it right now and get your Christmas spirit. Just remember to keep it alive all year long.

Merry Christmas to All

Houston Is Player of Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Kenny Houston is perfectly candid about his work as a defensive back for the National Football League's Houston Oilers.

"I like to score as well as anyone else," confides Houston's Houston. "Any time I intercept one, I think about the end zone right away."

That means Houston didn't have to think twice about what to do when he picked off consecutive passes and returned both for touchdowns last Sunday in the Oilers' 49-33 victory over San Diego.

The performance broke two National Football League records and made Houston The Associated Press' NFL Defensive Player of the Week.

Houston burned San Diego's John Hadl when he picked off a pass and returned it 34 yards for a third quarter touchdown. Then, after the kickoff, Hadl went right back to Houston's zone and the veteran safety grabbed the ball again and this time dashed 29 yards for another score.

The two interceptions gave Houston nine TD returns for his career, an NFL record, as well as the mark for the most TD interceptions in a single game. The two interceptions came in the midst of a second half Houston rally that pulled the Oilers to their victory. They also gave him four TD intercepts for the season, breaking a dry spell that had lasted since 1969.

Other outstanding defensive performers last week included Cleveland's Mike Howell, Minnesota's Charlie West, and Earl Edwards and Frank Nunley of the San Francisco 49ers.

Howell's key interception stopped a Washington drive and led to the Browns' winning touchdown in a 20-13 victory over Washington.

West's 89-yard interception set up a touchdown in the Vikings' victory over the Chicago Bears.

Edwards took part in 11 tackles and Nunley in five as the 49ers beat the Lions to clinch the West Division NFC-crown.

and violates the one-man, one-vote principle.

Democrats wrestled with the problem of selecting delegates to the 1972 National Convention, seeking to comply with national party guidelines and avoid an embarrassing credentials challenge at a convention at which they hope Mills will be a candidate.

The 1971 legislature established a presidential primary in which 80 per cent of the convention delegates will be selected by popular vote, partly satisfying the guidelines, but the election will be June 27, leaving no time before the convention starts for runoffs in races where no delegate candidate receives a majority vote. A test suit has been filed to determine if the law requires runoffs.

If they are, most Democrats feel that a special legislative session will be required to change the law.

Bumpers has maintained his silence on whether he will call a special session to deal with a number of other items, but says it would be difficult to avoid one if the delegate law has to be changed. Must legislators do not welcome the prospect of a special session in the election year.

The Republicans began rebuilding after a disastrous showing at the polls in 1970. Chairman Charles T. Bernard of Earle says the GOP effort has been to strengthen the "grassroots" base of the party in an effort to win a number of legislative seats in 1972.

But there has been some Republican criticism of Bernard, and Rockefeller has exhibited some coolness toward the chairman.
